

Service begins on an Ohio JCEP committee

Our professional organization's strength lies in our members' service.

As a member, you can serve on one of eight committees:

Global Relations: promotes international opportunities and programming within Extension.

Marketing: publishes communications used by members; oversees web and other technology-based member communications; works closely with the Membership Recruitment and Retention committee.

Membership Recruitment and Retention: actively works to recruit, retain and involve all Ohio JCEP-eligible OSU Extension personnel; promotes effective working relationships and a spirit of fellowship among members; works closely with the Marketing committee.

Personnel: monitors and reports on salary and benefits information; monitors and assesses the advantages and disadvantages of the faculty promotion and tenure process or the advancement system of unclassified and/or senior administrative and professional (A&P) employees, and conducts or obtains access to a salary analysis comparing North Central Region states for faculty and non-faculty. Members of OSU Extension administration are not eligible to serve on this committee due to potential conflicts of interest.

Professional Development: promotes professional excellence, personal development and leadership among Extension personnel; works closely with Scholarships, Grants and Recognition committee.

Public Issues: actively works to build and strengthen political and public support for OSU Extension through consistent and targeted communication with local, state and federal decision makers and agencies; educates and informs the membership about public issues and legislative matters affecting OSU Extension programs and staff.

Resource Development and Management: generates new ideas for resource development and management for professional development activities.

Scholarships, Grants and Recognition: administers and provides leadership to the state, regional and national award programs; and oversees the selection and distribution of professional development scholarships.
