CHI EPSILON SIGMA - ANNUAL MEETING - 1992

The Sixth Annual Meeting of the Alpha Chapter of Chi Epsilon Sigma was held Thursday October 15, 1992 at the Radisson Hotel, Columbus North. This luncheon meeting was opened with a welcome from Dorothy Rex, Charter Past President.

Honorary members in attendance were: Dr. E. Gordon Gee, 1992 Honorary Member; Dr. Bobby D. Moser; Dr. Jo Jones; Dr. Clarence J. Cunningham; Carlene Hamilton; and Shirley Brooks Jones.

Ruby Anderson recognized new member. They included: Thomas Camm, Diana Malone and Shirley Ramsey.

Terri Clark called on the 1991-92 scholarship winners to review the use of their funds received. Karon Dellinger and Connie Racey gave informative reports on the classes they attended.

Terri Clark, assisted by Clarence Cunningham, announced the winners for 1992-1993 scholarship money. They are Linda Helmke of Defiance County and Pat Myers of Logan County.

We were pleased to have Dr. Bobby Moser speak to the group at this point.

Becky Hooper, President and Evelyn Roediger, President-Elect, inducted Dr. E. Gordon Gee, President of The Ohio State University as the 1992 Honorary Member. Dr. Gee then addressed the group with an interesting, humorous and inspirational speech.

The 1991-92 officers and board of directors were recognized for their service the past year.

Election of officers for 1992-93 was conducted by President Becky Hooper and Marilyn Bloom, Past President.

The slate of officers was presented to the group, along with a request for nominations from the floor.
