

Ohio Community Wildlife Cooperative

Living with Wildlife and Resolving Conflicts in Ohio

Annual Conference

SAVE-THE-DATE

November 5th, 2015, 9:00 am - 3:30 pm
The Nationwide & Ohio Farm Bureau 4-H Center

Join Ohio community leaders and planners for a one-day conference focused on the role of local government in managing human-wildlife conflict. This year's topics include Raccoons, Fisheries Management in City Ponds, Wildlife Diseases, Ohio Tourism: Letting Wildlife Work for You, and Informed Consent Training: Building Public Buy-In Through Effective Communication.

The Ohio Community Wildlife Cooperative is a partnership between The Ohio State University Extension, The Ohio Division of Wildlife, USDA-APHIS, Wildlife Services, The Great Parks of Hamilton County, the Lake Erie Allegheny Partnership, and the City of Cleveland Mayor's Office of Sustainability.
